BEHAVIOR STANDARDS

All rules and regulations governing 4-H program activities and events will be discussed with agents, leaders, and 4-H'ers. The Georgia 4-H Code of Conduct is valid for one year and applies to all activities coordinated through 4-H including local, county, district, state and national activities.

- 4-H'ers are expected to attend all sessions as part of a planned program exhibiting positive character and behavior including (but not limited to) trustworthiness, responsibility, respectfulness, caring, citizenship and fairness.
- 4-H'ers are expected to be responsive to the reasonable requests of the leaders and respectful of the needs for their personal safety and the safety of others.
- 4-H'ers should dress appropriately, use appropriate language and respect the rights of others.
- 4-H'ers may not use alcohol, drugs, or tobacco, nor be associated with or remain in the presences of others using the substances.
- 4-H'ers may not behave recklessly, engage in sexual misconduct, assault, threaten or harm another person nor may they misuse or abuse public or private property.
- 4-H'ers may have access to computers at UGA/CES offices and facilities. Computer use is for educational purposes. 4-H'ers may not access in appropriate websites.
- Realizing these guidelines are not "all inclusive" the University of Georgia Extension Staff reserves the right to make adjustments to these policies

CONSEQUENCES OF MISBEHAVIOR

4-H'ers and adults who observe a breach in the Code of Conduct should report the misbehavior to the appropriate leader. 4-H'ers misbehaving will have the opportunity to explain their actions to leaders in charge of the activity and may request a review board. The person coordinating the event may also convene a review board for the purposes of determining what has occurred and what disciplinary action should be taken. A review board will consist of one Extension faculty or staff member, two volunteers and three 4-H members. The Extension faculty member coordinating the event will serve as chairperson. Disciplinary action should only be discussed with those involved, their parents/guardians and their Extension leaders.

If the 4-H'er is found in violation of the actions listed below and receives disciplinary action issued through the review process, his/her parents/guardians will be notified, the 4-H'er may be sent home at the parents' expense and may be suspended from participation of 4-H events for a period of no more than 6 months

- Breaking curfew or disturbing the peace
- Unexcused absences from the activities of an event
- Unauthorized use of vehicles during the event
- Reckless behavior
- Use of foul or offensive language
- Possession or use of tobacco
- Breach of the 4-H Code of Ethics
- Remaining in the presence of those using alcohol, illegal drugs or tobacco

If the accused is found in violation of the items below, his/her parents/guardians will be notified, the 4-H'er may be sent home at the parents' expense and suspended from participation of 4-H events for a period of no more than 12 months.

- Possession or use of illegal drugs or alcoholic beverages
- Theft, misuse or abuse of public or personal property
- Sexual misconduct
- Possession of weapons or fireworks
- Unauthorized absence from the premise of the event
- Assault or personal harm

In extraordinary cases, the 4-H review board may recommend suspense exceeding those listed above.

If a 4-H'er wishes to appeal the decision of the review board, the 4-H'er must appeal in writing through the County Extension office. Appeals must be filed within 10 days of notification of the disciplinary action. The appeal is sent to the Program Development Coordinator of the 4-H member and the State 4-H Leader. If the district and state 4-H staff can not resolve the matter, an appeal board will meet within 30 days of the 4-H'ers request. The appeal board will consist of one Extension worker, two volunteers and three 4-H members.

Following any disciplinary action, the person coordinating the activity must provide written notification concerning the action to the 4-H'ers parent/guardian, the county Extension faculty and the 4-H Program Development Coordinator.
